The missions available list will most likely be the feature of OPS you will use the most as a pilot. It will list all available mission legs. A mission may consist of multiple legs, which are linking flights to cover longer distances or cross into territories covered by other organizations. If a mission has multiple legs, some may be filled and some open, so you may see a mission with both. Of course, you can only request the mission legs that are open, in other words, do not yet have a Command Pilot assigned.

The Basic View, shown above, displays each mission with at least one available mission leg, so you can get an overview of the passenger's travel.

Click on the + sign next to the passenger's name, or the "Weight & Balance" link to get the detail of the loading for this flight.

The Compact View, shown below, shows only available mission legs, and allows for sorting by date, origin, destination, distance, and weight. This view is handy for narrowing down flights by specific criteria.

You can also choose to use the Advanced View, which has a number of filters for selecting flights.
